

BUILDING EXCELLENCE... for our customers, employees and communities.

E EMPLOYEES

At Shelco, our employees are our most valuable asset. Our “can do” team is committed to practical solutions in a professional manner. Our policy of offering growth opportunities to our employees encourages them to improve their skills.

X EXECUTE

We are committed to doing the job right. We take on each assignment with an aggressive and common sense approach.

C COMMUNICATION

Listening to the customer is essential to understanding their needs. We strive to eliminate surprises. Our proactive approach to construction keeps the entire team – Owners, Architects, Subcontractors and Suppliers in the loop.

E ETHICS

The greatest tribute to our reputation as a builder is being invited to perform repeat business with a customer. It is our belief that our reputation is only as good as our last project.

L LEADERS

We set the standard of a good corporate partner and strive to give back to the community.

L LONGEVITY

Since its inception in 1978, Shelco has built its reputation by honoring commitments. Billions of dollars of construction projects have been completed by creating successful partnerships.

E EDUCATION

Our changing industry demands that our employees are constantly educated in sound construction and safety practices. When combined with our broad field experience, Shelco is a vast resource for you.

N “NO NONSENSE”

Shelco’s efficient and flat structure ensures direct involvement from all levels on every project. Our small town roots are the foundation of our straight shooting personality. We believe that win-win scenarios build long term relationships.

C COMPETITIVE

Our unique approach to project management and field supervision promises consistent, superior performance. Shelco’s high activity in the bid market allows us to keep our numbers sharp. This ensures that our customers get the best value; with up to date pricing.

E ENTHUSIASM

Having the right team can make building an enjoyable and rewarding experience. Our project team rises to meet challenges with enthusiasm and solutions. We strive to exceed your expectations.
